

Latin sentence translation: everything we know so far!

Exercise 1

Translate these Latin sentences into English. But be careful to get the tense of the verb right (present or past continuous). Use your reference sheets to help you, if you like.

1. habito _____

2. laborabamus _____

3. femina cantabat _____

4. equi currunt _____

5. medicus laborat _____

6. magae ridebant _____

Exercise 2

These Latin sentences are a bit longer, with subjects and objects. You still have to watch out for the tense of the verb, though.

7. regina lunam laudat _____

8. porci villas videbant _____

9. medicus digitos numerabat _____

10. vaccae ventum audiunt _____

Exercise 3

Here are some Latin sentences that contain adjectives. Make sure you match up the right adjective and noun (remember, look for the rhyming endings). Use your reference sheets to help you, if you like.

11. irati estis _____

12. aquam frigidam videbam _____

13. equi sordidi campos bellos laudant

14. mirae magae maximam lunam amant

15. vacca prima est, equus secundus est, porcus tertius est

16. medicus bonus vaccas primas curabat

17. ventum malum non amamus

18. feminae laetae sunt

Exercise 4

Adverbs and prepositions make these Latin sentences even longer! Have a go at translating them into English.

19. aqua frigida per campos bellos currit

20. regina bona in maxima villa laete habitabat

21. porci miri sunt! in lunā habitant!

22. equus laetus circum vaccas iratas celeriter currebat

23. feminae bellae laete sub lunā rident
