This week, Charlie interviews the hero Odysseus

What have you done that makes you a 'hero'?

I fought for a long time to help my Greek friends get Helen back from Troy.

What makes you a good hero and why?

I am brave because I did lots of fighting. I also have very good ideas.

Is there anything that makes you not such a good person? Why is that?

I am selfish because I tried to get out of going to war. That also makes me a bit sneaky.

What do you want to happen in the future?

I want to stay and rule my home country and never go to war ever again.
