

Match the motto with its translation

Can you match these modern Latin mottoes to their correct meaning in English using the clue and clue word (underlined)? The first one has been done to show you how.

Arsenal F.C. - Victoria Concordia Crescit

Clue: The Latin word 'victoria' is almost identical to its English word.

Answer: Victory Grows Through Harmony

Hogwart's School - Draco Dormiens Nunquam Titillandus
Clue: The Latin word 'draco' gives us the English word 'dragon'.

Answer: A Sleeping Dragon Must Never Be Tickled

The City of Leicester – Consilio et Labore

Clue: 'Labour' is a synonym (another word with similar meaning) for 'work'.

Answer: By Intelligence and Work

Sheffield Wednesday F.C. – Consilio et Animis

Clue: 'Animated' can mean 'full of spirit'.

Answer: Through Intelligence and Spirit

The International Olympic Committee – Citius, Altius, Fortius

Clue: The English word 'altitude' means how high something is.

Answer: Faster, Higher, Stronger

Manchester City F.C. – Superbia in Proelia

Clue: If you were superb at something, you would be proud of yourself.

Answer: Pride in Battle

PRIDE IN BATTLE

FASTER, HIGHER, STRONGER

THROUGH INTELLIGENCE AND SPIRIT

Sounds like the clue word 'victoria'

BY INTELLIGENCE AND WORK

VICTORY GROWS THROUGH HARMONY

A SLEEPING DRAGON MUST NEVER BE TICKLED