

Identifying and translating the past continuous/progressive and present tenses

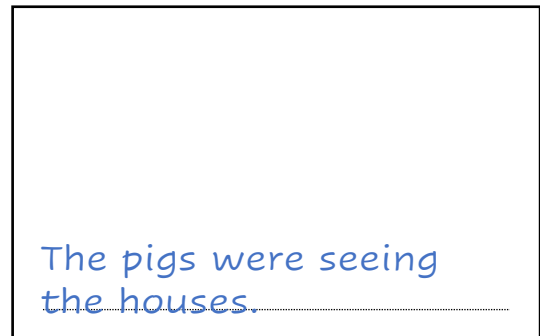

Translate these Latin sentences into English. But be careful to get the tense of the verb right (present or past continuous/progressive). The first one has been done to show you how.

1. dormio. I am sleeping.
2. laborabamus. We were working.
3. femina cantabat. The woman was singing.
4. equi currunt. The horses are running.
5. medicus laborat. The doctor works.
6. amici ridebant. The friends were laughing.

Can you translate and then illustrate these Latin sentences? They are a bit longer, with subject and object nouns. Don't forget to watch out for the tense of the verb. The first one has been done to show you how.

7. regina insulam amat.

8. porci villas videbant.

9. medicus digitos numerabat.

10. vaccae ventum audiunt.

Here are some Latin sentences that contain adjectives. Make sure you match up the right adjective and noun (remember, look for the rhyming endings). Use your reference sheets to help you, if you like. The first one has been done to show you how.

11. novum amicum habeo.

I have a new friend.

12. aquam frigidam consumebamus.

We were drinking the cold water.

13. equi mali porcos sordidos vexabant.

The bad horses were annoying the dirty pigs.

14. mirae magae magnam lunam amant.

The amazing witches love the big moon.

15. vacca prima est, equus secundus est, porcus tertius est.

The cow is first, the horse is second, the pig is third.

16. medicus bonus vaccas magnas curabat.

The good doctor was looking after the big cows.

Adverbs, prepositions and numbers make these Latin sentences even longer! Have a go at translating them into English. The first one has been done to show you how.

17. aqua frigida celeriter per campos currit.

The cold water is running quickly through the fields.

18. regina bona in magna villa bene dormiebat.

The good queen was sleeping well in the big house.

19. tres porci miri ad tabernam ambulant.

Three amazing pigs walk to the shop.

20. equus circum vaccas iratas facile currebat.

The horse was easily running around the angry cows.

21. magus bonus decem magas iratas fortiter salutabat.

The good wizard bravely greets ten angry witches.