

Conjunctions

The four Latin conjunctions we've met so far are...

et	sed	quod	itaque
and	but	because	therefore, so

Find a good conjunction and phrase from the bottom of the page to complete these sentences. You may find it easier if you translate all the sentences first before you match them. Note that more than one conjunction may work in a sentence, so pick whichever you prefer. The first one has been done to show you how.

1. amicus es quod bonus et probus es translation: You are a friend because you are good and honest.

2. mater in horto laborabat   .....

translation: _____

3. tres sorores habeo   .....

translation: _____

4. vaccae per silva ambulant   .....

translation: _____

5. rex insulam bene regebat   .....

translation: _____

6. soror prima est   .....

translation: _____

7. dormimus   .....

translation: _____

8. mater "nolite pugnare!" clamat   .....

translation: _____

9. valida sum   .....

translation: _____

10. magus lunam quaerit   .....

translation: _____

frater secundus est
_____

pater in villa manebat
_____

duces urbem male regebant
_____

bonus et probus es
you are good and honest

duo fratres habetis
_____

nox est
_____

stellas invenit
_____

equi per campo currunt
_____

infantes irate pugnant
_____

celeriter curro
_____