

Can you match the English word to its Latin number root? I've done one to show you how.

octopus	1
unit	7
millipede	100
quadrilateral	2
centigrade	4
duet	8
September	10
decimal	1,000

Fill the gaps in the Latin Happy Birthday song. The first one has been done to show you how.

felix dies tibi sit,
 ____ dies tibi sit,
 felix dies _____ lucunde,
 felix dies _____ sit!

felix
tibi care
dies

Can you add the correct part of 'esse' to complete the Latin sentence? The first one has been done to show you how.

sum

est

estis

es

sumus

sunt

feminae estis . Y'all are women lucundus _____ . I am lucundus.

stella _____ . It is a star magi _____ . They are wizards.

medicus _____ . You are a doctor.

equi _____ . We are horses.

Can you circle the verb and then translate these sentences below? I've done one to show you how.

laete canto.
I sing happily

equus magnus est? ita vero!

fortiter magum salutamus.

octo hortos videmus.

maga mille stellas numerat.

