

MAXIMUM CLASSICS

Key topics

- 1) What are verbs?
- 2) How do present tense verbs work in Latin

Word sorting in English

Sort the words you see on the board into the right group – noun or verb.

Nouns

(person, place or thing)

Verbs

(doing or being)

Underline the verbs in the sentences below. The first one has been done to show you how.

1. The dog eats his food hungrily.
2. Anil is helping with the washing up.
3. Mo was very happy on his birthday.
4. I tried my best in the race.
5. Two and four make six.
6. Jasmine ate four cupcakes!
7. You will get cold if you forget your coat.
8. Fortunately, the climber showed great bravery in the rescue.
9. I wasn't shouting!
10. Jo always cries at sad films.

Latin verb endings

Can you sort these Latin verbs into the right boxes depending on their endings and then say what they mean? One has been done to show you how. The two verbs we will use are:

videre, to see

and amare, to love

videt

~~amamus~~ vides

amat amatis amas video vident

amant videtis

videmus

amo ending in -o (I)

_____
-----
_____

ending in -mus (we)

amamus     we love
_____
-----
_____

ending in -s (you)

_____
-----
_____

ending in -tis (y'all)

_____
-----
_____

ending in -t (he, she, it)

_____
-----
_____

ending in -nt (they)

_____
-----
_____

Latin verb endings

Can you sort these Latin verbs into the right boxes depending on their endings and then say what they mean? One has been done to show you how. The two verbs we will use are:

videre, to see

and laborare, to work

videt

~~laboramus~~ laboratis

vides

laborat vident

laboras video videmus

laborant

videtis

laboro

ending in -o (I)

_____

_____

ending in -mus (we)

laboramus    we work

_____

_____

ending in -s (you)

_____

_____

ending in -tis (y'all)

_____

_____

ending in -t (he, she, it)

_____

_____

ending in -nt (they)

_____

_____

Making mythical monsters

word beginning

+

word ending

=

dino	saur
terrible	lizard

cephalo	pod
head	foot

ptero	dactyl
wing	fingers

platy	pus
flat	foot

amphi	bian
both	living

lyc	anthrope
wolf	man

hippo	potamus
horse	river

mino	taur
Minos	bull

cycl	ops
round	eye

octo	pus
eight	feet

Latin verb endings

Can you fit these Latin verbs into the grid below using the English translation clues? The first one has been done to show you how.

The Latin words to fit in the grid

habitat ✓      rideo      habitas laboramus      amatis      laboro      vident ridetis      cantamus      vides      cantat
amant

The 'across' clues

- 4. he, she or it lives ✓
- 8. we work
- 9. I laugh
- 10. y'all laugh
- 12. y'all love

The 'down' clues

- 1. they see
- 2. he, she or it sings
- 3. you live
- 5. I work
- 6. we sing
- 7. you see
- 11. they love

