

GREEK SENTENCES (SINGULAR & PLURAL)

What do the following sentences mean in English? Write a translation.
The first one has been done to show you how.

1. 'οι θεοι μετρουσι The gods measure.
2. 'ο μυς γραφει The mouse writes.
3. 'Αθηνα 'ακουει Athena hears.
4. 'αι θεαι φιλουσι The goddesses love.
5. 'οι ιπποι 'αριθμουσι The horses count.
6. 'η θεα σκοπει The goddess looks at/watches.

Can you fill in the gaps with a Greek word, and then translate the sentence? You can be as silly (or as sensible!) as you like. The first one has been done to show you how. Make sure you match singular nouns with singular verbs, and plural nouns with plural verbs.

1. 'ο 'ιππος. 'ακουει = The horse listens.
2. μετρει =
3. γραφουσι =
4. φιλει =
5. σκοπουσι =
6. 'αριθμει =
7. γραφουσι =

Handy Hints!

γραφειν   σκοπειν

'αριθμειν

'ακουειν  μετρειν  φιλειν

'ο θεος  'οι θεοι

'η θεα  'αι θεαι

'ο 'ιππος  'οι 'ιπποι

'η σφαιρα  'αι σφαιραι

'η 'οικια  'αι 'οικια

'ο μυς 